

AUTHORS' BIOS

Dr. Diane Elson is a professor in the Department of Sociology and the Human Rights Centre at the University of Essex in the United Kingdom. She worked with UNIFEM in the conceptualization of its Biennial Review, Progress of the World's Women 2000 and was the coordinator of UNIFEM's Progress of the World's Women 2000. She is the principal author of Progress of the World's Women 2002: Volume 2: Gender Equality and the Millennium Development Goals. Dr. Elson also currently serves as an adviser to UNIFEM on gender responsive budgets. She is the author of many papers and presentations on gender and development, and co-editor (with Caren Grown and Nilufer Cagatay) of two special issues of World Development. She is also a member of the UN MDG Task Force on Education and Gender.

Hande Keklik is a consultant in the UNIFEM Economic Security and Rights section. She also was a member of the team that prepared UNIFEM's Progress of the World's Women 2000. She is a Ph.d. candidate at the University of Utah in the United States, researching the care economy with a particular concentration on domestic workers.

~~~~~